

As I understand it, your job is to protect us. Do your job, leave the Do Not Call in place and move forward to another project that needs your attention. Don't beat a dead horse. What you have done is great, we are all enjoying it and this is a waste of time and MONEY.